Books

The Dream Oracle

Acquired: Taken from Hogwarts Library

Cost: 0

Amount: 1

A book containing the Beginner-level Temporal Spells

Clothing

Hogwarts Robes

Acquired: Purchased prior to arriving at Hogwarts

Cost: £10

Amount: 1

A simple set of black wizards robes with a colourful lining reflecting the Hogwarts House that you belong to. These robes are generally regarded as old fashioned and a bit odd to wear outside of school environs, but not totally unusual.

These robes give you a +1 to all casting checks whilst you are wearing them.

Shield Hat

Acquired: Purchased from Weasley's Wizarding Wheezes

Cost: £0.5

Amount: 1

First developed by the Weasley twins as a prank item prior to the Second Wizarding War, the Ministry took a great interest in the Shield Hat as a defensive item. As a result, an entirely new line of (mostly) serious products were introduced.

Outwardly, the shield hat appears to be a normal pointed wizard's hat, though a peek inside the brim reveals some glowing enchanted runes. Once per day, the wearer can mentally trigger a the hat to produce a shield which projects outwards for a few moments, before quickly fading.

This shield is equivalent to the Force Field spell cast at a third level. During the turn cycle in which the field is activated, you have an impenetrable field which stops all spells and physical attacks from passing through it.

This shield has a health of 40HP. If any attack would cause the shield to drop to 0HP, the shield is dispelled and half the remaining damage is dealt to the wearer.

Items

Decoy Detonators

Acquired: Purchased from Weasley's Wizarding Wheezes

Cost: Free

Amount: 3

In a tribute to their father, the Weasley's designed the Decoy Detonator to look like a slightly oversized rubber duck, though with a slightly random assortment of legs, wheels, caterpillar treads, and octopus tentacles stuck to the bottom.

To activate a decoy detonator, crank the small handle on the back a couple of times, and release it. The detonator will scamper away on its mishmash of legs for a distance of up to 2d10 metres, before exploding with a loud flash.

This explosion is not violent enough to do physical damage to all but the weakest of beings, but it provides an excellent distraction and diversion.

Ministry Badge

Acquired: Given by Galen Rex

Cost: N/A

Amount: 1

A very official looking badge, inscribed with the ministry insignia. The badge itself fits comfortably into the palm of your hand.

School Satchel

Acquired: Purchased prior to arriving at Hogwarts

Cost: £5

Amount: 1

A small over-the-shoulder bag used by Hogwarts Students. Enough room to contain up to two large textbooks and a number of small items.

Tarnished Necklace

Acquired: Found in the Junk Shop

Cost: £5

Amount: 1

A stained and grubby metal chain, with what looks to be (beneath the grime) a gemstone of some kind.

A magical investigation led you to understand that this was a very valuable bit of jewellery, though not in the best of conditions. The gemstone in the centre is a very large, very pure sapphire.

Tools

Forgery Tools

Acquired: Purchased prior to arriving at Hogwarts

Cost: £10

Amount: 1

A calligraphy set, and other widgets and devices necessary to produce authentic-looking forged documents.

Weapons

Apple and Unicorn Tail Hair Wand

Acquired: Purchased prior to arriving at Hogwarts

Cost: £5

Amount: 1

A golden orange wand, 10 inches long and very supple. Requires proficiency with Wands in order to use.

This wand gives +1 to casting and accuracy checks for both Healing and Warding spells, and reduces the FP cost of spells from the Temporal and Telepathy disciplines by 1.
